OPEN HAND FETE

Social Season Closed Yester day With Lawn Party.

The Open Hand Club concluded its so cial season yesterday afternoon with lawn fete at the residence of Mrs. Wiggers on Palisade avenue. The weather was perfect, not too hot, not too cool and not stormy, and everybody was in the best of humor. There were between fifty and sixty people present.

The grounds had been laid out in courts for all kinds of lawn games, such as croquet, ring games, besides which there was a unique guessing game, not new to ndoor entertainments, but seldom transplanted to the lawn fete. About sixty portraits of famous men and women had been clipped from papers and magazines and tacked round about on trees. Three prizes were awarded. Those who recognized the greatest number of these. > A sight which shoppers did not relish yesterday was a dapper young man, plainly in the employ of some big beef house, who was going from butcher shop to butcher shop giving the proprietors in structions how to sell all cuts of meat. He told them that the cheapest stock should be twenty-two cents a pound and that meat for boiling, roasting or stewing should not be sold for less than sixteen cents a pound. This agent went all over the Heights trying to establish a "uniform scale of prices." The butchers are in the main, agreeable to the transaction if all proprietors keep the prices regular. The public has felt the increase very nuch. It has a most telling effect on the Heights' residents, who are doing lots of hard grumbling. It seems that the trust been jacked up at least three cents on the pound and this has proven a hardship on the poor people. How long the trust intends to bleed the easy public is not known, but it is obvious that the retailers do not seem to care how things go since they too have increased all prices. Not a explaining to their customers how the meat came to go up so high.

The increase is spreading all over the county and the country. Meat has gonup at all points and the public must pay for the additional trust charges.

MR. BONNELL'S SUCCESSOR DEGREE FOR COV. VOORHEES

Rumor Says Custodiauship Will Go to Son of State Treasurer Swain.

[Special to "The Jersey City News."]
TRENTON, June 12, 1801.—The State House Commission met yesterday afterhe successor of the late John H. Bonnell, custodian of the Capitol. There were present Governor Voorhees, State George B. Swain. The Governor stated positively that the new custodian will be ed in two weeks or perhaps at the end of next week. According to the present outlook, A. Wildrick Swain, son of the State Treasurer, stands a pretty fair chance of landing the position. In fact, it seems at present to be within his hands and only needs his own asking to be given to him. The position of custodian is generally considered to be an Essex "graft," and the lot of the State Treasurer, who comes from that county, to name the appointee, with merely the sanction of his two coleagues. It therefore follows that should State Treasurer Swain's son want the position, his father virtually only has to to date $100,000 had been subscribed. This name him and the place is his.

Swain said that he did not know. He said that he had only seen his son for the subject had not been mentioned. State Treasurer, "that my son's name campus. has been mentioned by a number of his
